Preface

Dear photographers and the members of the WPE Awards,

It is now two years since the great adventure of the photography competition, WPE Awards, began.

This year was marked by the health crisis linked to COVID-19, which severely affected the profession of photography.

Despite everything, this year has allowed us to see that your creativity has not been compromised, on the contrary, we have seen the emergence of many high-quality artistic projects that have not failed to attract attention and arouse our astonishment.

Three competitions took place in 2020; First Half, Second Half, and Annual Final, which brought together no less than 7,000 photographers. More than 15,000 photos were judged during the various competitions of the year by a talented jury carefully selected from among the greatest photographers of the planet.

With this 2020 Annual Catalog, we present to you the 140 photographers whose photos have been awarded first, second or third place in their categories. The artists are presented in descending order according to their points accumulated during the year 2020.

Best regards,
PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS EUROPE COMMUNITY

John Makris

Professional of WPE

Total points earned for the year 2020 : 31

Greece

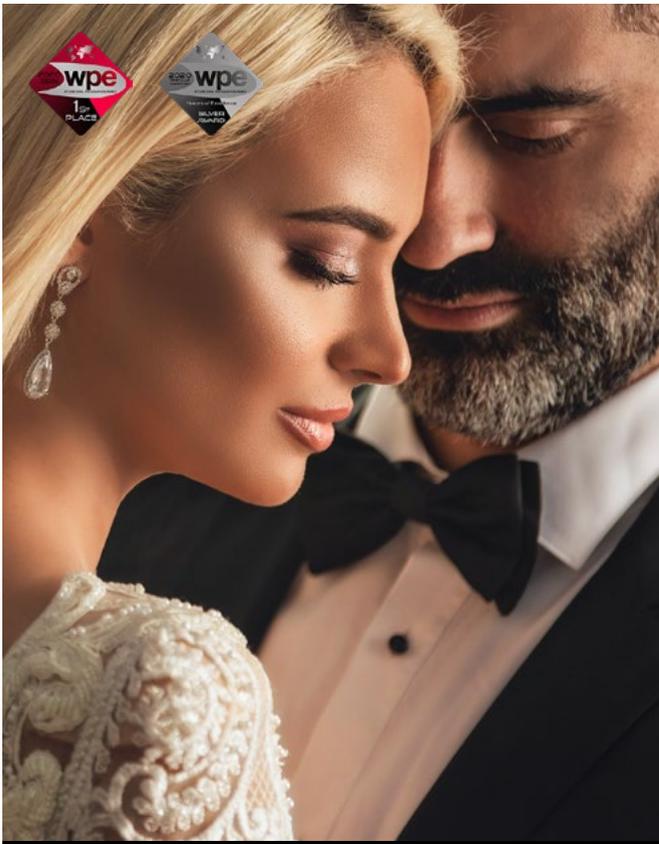

The word photograph literally means “writing with light”. You could write a report about a circumstance, or, you could express yourself through poetry about the exact same circumstance. This exactly is John Makris’ viewpoint on Wedding Photography.

Having shot many weddings in every nook and cranny of Greece and in many countries overseas, he has come to love wedding photography dearly. He believes it is an extraordinary way to narrate the most beautiful day of a couple’s life together, to contribute in recording the story and offering the couple and their relatives a kind of special heritage.

John Makris has been awarded with a number of photography awards in Greece and on a worldwide level.

Therese Asplund

Master of WPE

Total points earned for the year 2020 : 28.5

Sweden

Therese is a Swedish portrait photographer and international Elinchrom ambassador. Her specialty is portraits. Whether she works in her studio or on location she has a big passion for lighting and people. She runs a portrait studio in the small town Avesta but works all over Sweden with both commercial and private costumers.

She also teaches photography and has been working part time for Nikon at Nikon school, done education videos for Moderskeppet and taught portrait photography and lighting for Zoom Photo Tours.

She loves to try new things and she also does a great deal of work just for herself. Good pictures from these sessions often make competition pictures. She has won prizes for my pictures both in Sweden and internationally.

Roberta Montagnini is an award-winning Photographer based in Yorktown, VA, USA. Her goal is to empower people to feel beautiful exactly how they are and make them experience a first-class photoshoot.

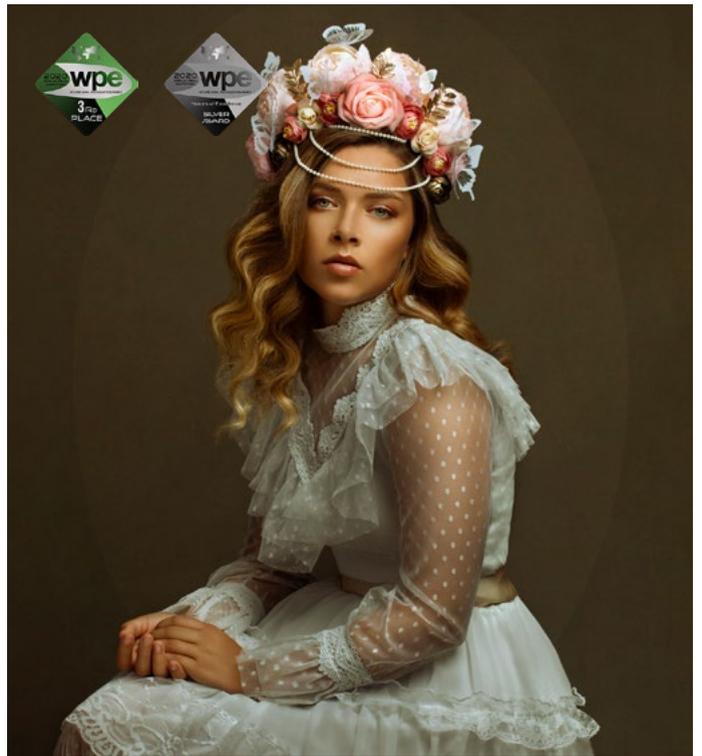

“I want to end the stigma that was created and enforced in our society that one must be photogenic to look and feel beautiful. There isn’t such a thing as being photogenic. There are differences in being photographed by someone that can see your soul and capture that in photographs with great use of lighting and posing. Everyone is perfect as they are and uniquely beautiful and I want to show each person that they are worthy and deserving to exist in stunning photographs.”

France

Based in Versailles, I photograph weddings in France and abroad. My greatest wish, as well as my duty as a wedding photographer, is to offer wedding photos that are far from your typical shots.

Weddings are a unique and special moment in a couple's life. I am inspired by the love, the joy and the happiness reflected on people's faces on a wedding day. I strive above all to capture the magic of the moment, all while trying to find the perfect esthetic to create memories that will last a lifetime.

New Zealand

International multi award winning Maternity, Newborn and Family Photographer, based in Auckland, New Zealand. I have always been passionate about children, babies and pregnancy, and what it means to be a family. Connection and emotions are important for me to express through my work, and I absolutely love blowing away each client with their own personalised portraits. I have way too many pets at home, two boys and a life full of love. Being highly creative and entrepreneurial, I have found my happiness in a career, where I can work with my best friend and husband, that I am passionate about and that gives me a creative outlet. It also gives others the happiness and joy I love to share with the world.

Hello my name is Nancy and I'm a Portrait photographer living in Melbourne Australia. I am a Master Photographer with WPPI, an Associate member of the AIPP, NZIPP, The Society of Photographers, The Portrait Masters and WPE. I developed a passion for photography in my early teens, starting with old school 35mm film. While studying at the Victorian College of the Arts in the 1970's as a ballet dancer I was handed an old camera. Today I draw on a life time of artistic mediums which greatly influence the images I create, and the use of props and costumes plays a huge part in developing a theatrical look to my images. My images for me are like little snippets of times past, with a whimsical style of a bygone age.

Growing up in Australia, I was surrounded by an incredible landscape that captivated me with waterfalls, rainforests, mountains, and the Great Barrier Reef. For over 35 years my travels have taken me to the most amazing locations around the world – from the American Southwest to the Great Wall of China. I have captured landscapes that I could only once dream of shooting. With my galleries, I get to share my work with a very supportive group of collectors, fans and nature lovers. I am so grateful for the beauty of this planet and I will never stop sharing it.

In 2003, after several experiences in the field or digital photography, we discovered the ideal means to express our creativity – Digital Photography artistically touched up.

Within the context historiography of art, the use of photography, and more specifically, touching up photographs, is nothing new. We do however aim to innovate somewhat, in terms of the themes on which our work is based. Regardless of the fact that our main source of inspiration is mythology, up-to-date themes or others that are the simple fruit of our creativity, still remain full of details, of symbols, of images, an attempt to captivate, but mainly, as an attempt to stimulate critical thought in viewers.

The inspiration for my portraits comes from the Baroque painting combined with contemporary aspects. I especially like the scarce lighting that was so beautifully used by the painters from the Golden Age, such as Rembrandt and Vermeer. With my photos I want to tell a special story that tells about a unity or similarity between child and animal. This creates an almost surreal Baroque atmosphere.

My passion for wildlife has taken me around the world and there is nothing I love doing more and I try hard to show that passion through my images.

I spend hours in the field and what some people don't understand is that some feelings you get are priceless...it is a true blessing to be able to take the time to sit and watch wildlife let alone photograph it. Sometimes it's more important to experience the moment rather than miss it taking photos.

There is no better feeling than having those magical moments that will probably never be repeated but stay with you forever. These are the moments that come back to me when looking at my images and make me smile and feel so lucky in doing what I do.

I met my grandfather through a photograph. He sits there in a sturdy piece of black-and-white paper, holding a two year old me - my only proof of ever having received any grandfatherly love. As I veered from photographing for pleasure to choosing it as a profession, this black and white photo stuck with me - reminding me how photographs can turn moments into memories. This is perhaps why I am drawn to portraits. All the people and their stories that I get to know during my photographic sessions inform my social vision and fire my creative imagination. Though the awards have been a huge source of encouragement, my stories remain my source of inspiration.

“In photographing I love the search for perfect harmony with the subject to be shot and with the technical and technological resources to be used. Because of the subject - what, place or person - we can grasp that unique and indispensable aspect that tells it”.

Diego Pomanti explains his passion as well as his work. Photographer constantly looking for the union between precision and emotion, he has that unusual ability to dress objects, environments and people with light. He ranges through all the themes of photography, favoring advertising, industrial, fashion communication and art reproductions.

Ukraine

Yevgeniy Repyashenko was born in Kiev, Ukraine in 1979. At the age of 20, while studying at the National Technical University, he starts to work with his first SLR camera. His works always reflect poetic beauty, naked grace and harmony. Being fascinated with classical sculpture and Renaissance painting, Yevgeniy finds a new creativity direction - sculpture photography and the plastic movement. Flawless nudity of ballerina's and gymnast's bodies freezes in a fit of dance leaving the strongest feelings and passion in the frame. At first glance, they do not seem real, but sculpted by hands of the master. His SPIRIT series is a combination of the texture of classical sculpture with the filling of modern rhythm and emotions.

Ukraine

My name is Dmitry Baev and I'm from Odessa, Ukraine. I got started in photography in 2013.

My passion for Dutch painting and Impressionism always pushes me to use the principles of achieving chiaroscuro lighting that the artists used. Light tones, colors and shades allow to achieve smoother transition from light to shadow in a photo. As for me, photography is a kind of feeling not a technique. The essence is the emotional substance rather than color, composition or form. Technical means and elements may only enhance the emotional response.

I like creating fine-art photography via use of my own "painterly effect" technique. My photos come into their own when printed out on paper or canvas in size larger than 50 cm.

I picked up my first 'non-point and shoot' camera in 2014 after I quit my job at Google Australia, sold 90% of possessions and packed my life into a 40L backpack to travel the world. When I returned home in 2016, one of the photos I took won 1st place in an international photography competition, which enabled me to upgrade my kit, obtain my first ever underwater housing, as well as a trip to Tonga to swim with whales. These chains of fortunate events had reminded me of how much I love the ocean, how much I love being active, and how much I love being creative, the building blocks that naturally led me to exit the corporate world for good and pursue the passion I now have for freediving and photography.
